CITY OF ELGIN

ORDINANCE NO. 6
SERIES 1991

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE 9, SERIES 1981
DEFINING NUISANCES,AND PROHIBITING THE SAME

WHEREAS: Ordinance 9 series 1981 defines nuisances and prohibits the same, establishes abatement thereof and provides for penalties, and;

WHEREAS: There is a need to extend the powers of the said ordinance;

NOW THEREFORE, THE CITY OF ELGIN ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS;

The following Section is added to, and becomes a part of, Ordinance 9 series 1981:

Section 20. Separate Violations.

(3) Not withstanding Section 20 (2) above, if a nuisance exists, and even though it is abated when cited within ten days as provided, but due to the nature of the nuisance it continues to reoccur, then upon multiple citations for the same nuisance violation, the Common Council of the City of Elgin shall give notice to the cited party and hold a hearing to determine the cause of the nuisance. If the Council determines that the cause of the multiple violations are under the control of the cited party, the council shall define the cause of the nuisance, and issue an order to abate the nuisance as provided by Section 13 and following. The abatement of the cause of a nuisance and/or the findings of the Council as to the cause of a nuisance at any subsequent hearing shall be enforceable as long as the cause, as duly determined and defined, shall exist whether or not, an immediate nuisance exists.
